

Onward With The Show Theatre Fellowship

Madison Country Day School, an independent school in Madison, WI, invites all theatre artists to apply for a fellowship in our new program, Onward With The Show.

Who

We are seeking all types of individual theatre artists: lighting designers, performers, costume designers, Kabuki experts etc. We are also seeking a theatre company to engage with students.

What

As a Fellow, you will design an interactive, hour-long Zoom class in your specialty. You will teach this class three times: to freshmen, sophomores, and community members.

Compensation

Individuals will be paid $500 for your work; Theatre companies will be paid $1000.

Why

The pandemic has hit the theatre community with immeasurable force. MCDS values the theatre and its artists. We want our students to experience the theatre and all of its benefits while uplifting those artists who are struggling. Together, we can pave the way for a smooth re-entry back into a world with a thriving theatre scene. The show must go onward!

Dates and Deadlines

Deadline for submission is March 12, 2021. Classes will be taught starting the week of April 5.
